

Integration of Mcgraw-Hill Publisher Materials

The purpose of this document is to explain how to integrate Mcgraw-Hill Publisher materials into your Canvas Course.

NOTE: It is highly suggested that you DO NOT link your Publisher material to your sandbox/development course as this will result in a duplication of assignments in your CRN course.

How to place the Mcgraw-Hill Connect Navigation link on your on your Course Navigation Bar.

- 1) Click the “Settings” button on your Course Navigation bar.
- 2) Click the “Navigation” link at the top of the page.

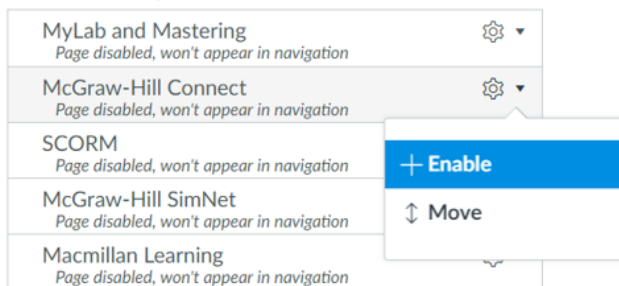

Drag and drop items to reorder them in the course navigation.

- 3) Scroll down to the items that are hidden from student view
- 4) Locate the Mcgraw Hill Connect and click the settings gear to the right.

Drag items here to hide them from students.

Disabling most pages will cause students who visit those pages to be redirected to the course home page.

- 5) Click “Enable”. This will move the page up to the accessible pages in your course.
- 6) Scroll to the bottom of the page and click “Save”. The page is now accessible on your Course Navigation Bar. NOTE: If you do not click “Save”, you must repeat

Steps 1-6. Pairing a McGraw-Hill Connect Course with your Canvas Course

NOTE: You must have a course in McGraw-Hill Connect already created to sync with this course.

- 7) Click the McGraw-Hill Connect link button on your Course Navigation Pane. You may be directed to log in using your McGraw-Hill Connect account.
- 8) Click the Pair with a Connect Section on the McGraw-Hill Connect page.

- 9) Here you will need to decide if you want to pair your Canvas course with a new Connect Course or an Existing Connect Course. If you have a course in McGraw-Hill that can be linked to this course, click a section in an existing Connect course.

- 10) Select the course that you want to link to your Canvas course.
