Learning in the Cloud (Sep 2016)

How does the “Dear Sophie” video apply to our work? __________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________

What is an Empty Outline? What is a Word Journal? How can you apply these bricks in your classroom?
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

What is a Dropbox File Request? How can you use it with your students? __________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

What is Ping Pong? What are some ways you can use it to engage your students? __________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

What other ideas do you have for how you might use the cloud to promote lifelong learning? __________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________